

Track Your Progress

The Student Portal provides a central dashboard where you can monitor your activity, track assessment completion, and ensure you are meeting your rotation requirements.

This page helps you stay on track throughout your rotation by giving you a clear view of your progress.

Step 1

Dashboard Overview

After logging in, you will land on the Dashboard. This is your main overview screen. From here, you can view:

- Rotations – Your current and upcoming rotations
- Patient Logs – Total logs created for your current session
- Ad-hoc Assessments – Requests you have submitted
- Weekly Assessments – Automatically generated assessments
- Mid-Rotation – Self-assessments to be completed
- Review Preceptor – Submit feedback on your preceptors

Welcome to Student Portal!

Access your rotations, patient logs, assessments, and more.

Step 2

Understanding Progress Indicators

Throughout the system, you will see status labels that help you understand your progress:

- Current – Items that require your attention now
- Future – Upcoming items that are not yet due
- Completed – Items that have been finished

These indicators are used across:

- Weekly Assessments
- Ad-hoc Assessments
- Mid-Rotation Assessments

Step 3

Tracking Patient Logs

In the Patient Logs section, you can:

- View all logs for your current rotation
- Edit logs (until finalized)
- Confirm that your encounters have been recorded

Patient Logs

View your patient logs for the current academic year. This includes logs for both current and past rotations for the year.

Step 4 Tracking Assessments

Use the Assessments section to monitor:

- Weekly assessment progress
- Ad-hoc requests you have submitted
- Whether preceptors have completed feedback

You can quickly see:

- Which assessments are still pending
- Which have been completed
- Which are upcoming

Mid-Rotation Self Assessment

This form is to be completed prior to meeting with a clerkship director for mid-rotation feedback

MID-ROTATION SELF ASSESSMENT

1. Comment on your progress in meeting the requirements (core conditions, direct observations, procedures, teaching evaluations) for this rotation. Please note if you are having any difficulties meeting these requirements.

Response: Met all requirements

2. Based on your self-assessment as well as feedback (verbal and CAS), what are your strengths in this rotation?

Response: Met all requirements

3. Based on your self-assessment and feedback (verbal and CAS), identify one or more areas you want to work on to improve during the remainder of the rotation. Please be specific.

Response: Met all requirements

4. Comment on any other issues related to the rotation which the clerkship director should be made aware of.

Response: Met all requirements

Step 6 Staying on Track

To ensure you are progressing successfully:

- Log patient encounters regularly
