

Mid-Rotation Self-Assessment Guide

The Mid-Rotation Self-Assessment allows you to reflect on your progress during your rotation and provide feedback ahead of your mid-rotation review.

Your responses are shared with the preceptor, who will complete the corresponding assessment in the Preceptor Portal.

 Tip: Choose a preceptor who has directly observed your performance during the rotation.

Step 3

Completing the Self-Assessment

You will be asked to complete a series of reflective questions, including:

- Progress toward requirements
- (e.g., patient encounters, procedures, evaluations)
- Strengths
- Based on your experience and any feedback received
- Areas for improvement
- Identify specific areas to focus on for the remainder of the rotation
- Additional comments
- Any concerns or information to share with the clerkship director

Take time to provide thoughtful and honest responses.
